Superintendent's Reports:

Dr. Haines said both John Marshall and Cameron High Schools' graduations were a great success. WesBanco Arena and the school teams worked together to offer very professional events to honor the students.

Dr. Haines let the Board know that she continues to work with Mrs. Hartley on building an Employee Assistance Program and will have a draft advertisement on June 8th.

We continue to work to offer summer assistance at every school as requested by principals. There will be many programs throughout the summer at no cost.

This week, summer books and academic packets are going home to every child PreK-3, and paid for by Marshall County Schools.

Debbie Derico has been working with principals to get children signed up for home delivery five-day meal packets throughout the summer. We currently have 960 students signed up.
